MAXIMUS FOUNDATION DONATES $2,500 TO HELP CHILDREN WITH AUTISM BUILD FRIENDSHIPS

SACRAMENTO – The MAXIMUS Foundation awarded $2,500 to UCP’s Autism Center for Excellence (ACE). UCP is the leading provider of comprehensive services for 5,730 children and adults born with a developmental disability and their families. The MAXIMUS Foundation mission is to foster independence and self-confidence, removing the barriers of isolation and connecting children, adults and their families to community and resources. The grant will fund the UCP ACE after-school program at Sacramento State to using Applied Behavior Analysis to teach life skills to children age 8 – 12, with autism, while helping them build a foundation for friendships.

“UCP is grateful to be selected by the MAXIMUS Foundation as a beneficiary for our Autism Center for Excellence After-School program,” said Doug Bergman, UCP President and CEO. “We are thrilled to partner with them to better the lives of children who are living with autism spectrum disorder to live a life without limits.”

“On behalf of the MAXIMUS Foundation, I am proud to provide this award to UCP of Sacramento and Northern California,” said John Boyer, MAXIMUS Foundation Chairman. “UCP and its staff embody the values that the MAXIMUS Foundation strives to achieve through its grant making program – promoting personal growth and self-sufficiency through improved health, augmented child and family development and community development. It is an honor to present this grant to such a deserving organization, and I thank UCP for its commitment to enriching the lives of those it serves.”

About UCP of Sacramento and Northern California

Each month, UCP of Sacramento and Northern California serves 5,730 children and adults with developmental disabilities and their families in Butte, El Dorado, Nevada, Placer, Sacramento, Shasta, Sutter and Yolo counties.
