TENGA FOUNDATION DONATES $3,000 TO HELP PEOPLE WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES LIVE INDEPENDENTLY

SACRAMENTO – Tenga Foundation has awarded $3,000 to UCP Community Living and Support Program (CLASP). UCP of Sacramento and Northern California is the leading provider of comprehensive services for 5,300 children and adults born with a developmental disability and their families.

The Tenga Foundation empowers people in the communities they serve by investing in the future of diverse community development. The Foundation is proud to fund community nonprofits like, UCP who stands their mission to empower people to live a life without limits. California representative of Tenga Foundation, Ms. Risa Omega, President and General Manager of Channel 10, KXTV (ABC) believes organizations like UCP are great partners for Tenga Foundation to make a difference in this community.

For UCP Community Living Arrangements Services and Program (CLASP), this funding will continue to provide one-on-one, targeted services for clients who seek the necessary skills to live independently in their own residences avoiding institutionalization.

“The Tenga Foundation is providing us the capabilities to stretch our Community Living and Support program so that we can serve more adults to be as independent as they can.” said Doug Bergman, UCP President and CEO. “This funding will mean that we can continue to address the needs of clients. We are appreciate the Tenga Foundation for recognizing that people with disabilities can live a life without limits when they are empowered with the right tools.”
